CITY COUNCIL ROOM, ROCK ISLAND, Jan. 19. The city council met in regular session at 8 p. m., Mayor McConchie presiding and all the aldermen present. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Alderman Kennedy from the claims committee moved that J. G. Smith be allowed $175 in full of his claim for damages by reason of a personal injury. Adopted unanimously.

Alderman Schroeder presented a bill of George Bick for $361.68, which was referred to the fire and light committee. A bill of the clerk of the appellate court for $11 85, costs in the Dies case, was allowed. Also a bill of G. W. Gamble, recorder, $80.

Alderman Coker, from the fire and light committee, reported that the contract for plumbing at the Central engine house had been let to M. Yerbury at $250—the lowest bid. Approved.

Alderman Knox, from the street and alley committee, reported on the bids for the paving of Fifth avenue, with an analysis showing the bid of George Krechbaum & Co. to be $35 lower than that of Edwards & Walsh; but stating that no samples of the brick to be furnished by Krechbaum & Co., could be found, while full and satisfactory samples were submitted by Edwards & Walsh.

On motion of Alderman Coker the contract was awarded to Edwards & Walsh. Alderman Knox, from the street and alley committee, submitted the estimate for paving Market square, the total cost being $6 992 80, and the city's portion $3,645 65. Ordered received and placed on file.

The matter of putting in a foundation for the Cable filtering plant was left to the waterworks committee and Mr. William Jackson, with power to act.

Alderman Schroeder, from the sewer committee, reported adversely on the petition for the repeal of the Twenty-fourth street sewer ordinance, unless the property holders pay for work already done, and a release be obtained from the contractors. Also favoring the extension of watermains on the line of the sewer. Report received.

City Attorney Hass reported as to renting the abattoir building, that the city has now acquired full ownership and is at liberty to exercise property rights.

On motion of Alderman Coker the city clerk was directed to advertise for proposals for leasing the building.

On motion of Alderman Schroeder the mayor and waterworks committee were authorized to dispose of an unused engine at the works.

On motion of Alderman Evans the street and alley committee was authorized to exchange dirt for rock from the excavations made by Davis & Co. for the fuel gas pipes.

The bond of Andrew Etzel, policeman, was read and approved.

The clerk read a communication from City Attorney Hass in relation to the McEniry appeal case. Received and ordered incorporated in the proceedings.

The mayor appointed as a committee of conference on the part of Rock Island on arranging a division of the cost of the Darling creek bridge, Aldermen Schroeder, Evans and Buncher.

The matter of putting in a certain hydrant was referred to the waterworks committee with power to act.

A vote of thanks was unanimously tendered to Mr. H. D. Mack, division agent of the C. B. & Q. railway for the courtesy of a trip to Galesburg.

MR. KERR'S SERIES.

The Pauline Epistles Discussed Before the Y. M. C. A. Sunday Afternoon.

The Pauline epistles were ably discussed by Rev. J. H. Kerr Sunday afternoon in his lecture to young men at the Y. M. C. A. rooms. The speaker stated that these letters of Paul are not arranged in the bible according to the time they were written. Paul dictated to an amanuensis. The authorship of Hebrews was not touched as Prof. Weidner had explained that fully. Origin says that God only knows who wrote Hebrews. These are divided into three classes. First—The early epistles. Second—epistles of the captivity. Third—Pastoral epistles.

Near 37 A. D. Paul was converted. A condensed outline of Paul's three missionary journeys were given and the places pointed out on the map. The main feature of the talk was taking each Epistle in order of time written, showing under what circumstances Paul himself was when writing and the condition of the church or person to whom the letter was addressed.

Ephesians was referred to as being the most profound of Paul's letters. No words of commendation are found in Galatians. Philimon is a beautiful little gem while Philipians is full of gratitude. The one to Titus, a young man in charge of the church at Crete, invests him with authority and admonishes him to let no one despise his youth. The second letter to Timothy is Paul's last, and encourages Timothy not to be ashamed of the gospel of Christ.

Rev. Kerr gives his last talk in the course next Sunday, and all young men interested are invited.

Miss Edson Honored.

Mrs. J. S. Runnels of 350 Dearborn avenue gave a coffee Thursday night from 8 to 11 o'clock, in honor of her young guest Miss Edson of Rock Island.

The handsome drawing room was aglow with many clusters of pink tulips that were placed here and there with charming effect. A mass of tropical greens entirely concealed the wide open fireplace and bloomed in stately groups in the hall. The dining-room was all in opulent yellow tones with deep blue of the English violet in pleasing contrast. The table was bordered with a broad silken drape of a lovely golden hue whose graceful folds were held in place by knots of violets.

In the center of the table resting on a snowy scarf of exquisite drawn work was a huge silver bowl of yellow jonquils and at either end were towering candelabra with their yellow tapers and dainty shades. The choice menu was served by Kinsley. After 11 o'clock the young people took advantage of the canvas covered floors and under the skillful guiding of Hand's orchestra danced as only the young can dance, with light hearts and lighter feet.

Miss Edson wore a soft clinging gown of snowy mousseline de soie made with demi train and low corsage with garniture of white satin ribbons. A deep red rose was worn in the soft coils of the luxuriant hair and a necklace of pearls encircled the fair throat.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

THE CIRCUIT COURT.

The Second Panel of the Petit Jury Called—Criminal Cases Disposed of—A Libel Suit.

In the circuit court yesterday afternoon the second panel of the petit jury was called. Fritz Klier and Otto Ebeling, of Moline, and Joseph Danlop, of Elgin, were reported as not found. The following gentlemen were excused: B. B. Crowder and Albert Larson, Moline; M. Lee Galt, Fred Grotegut, Dennis Coleman, Rock Island; H. H. Robb, South Rock Island; Thomas Roberts, Port Byron.

State's Attorney Sturgeon made a statement to the court, concerning the case against W. B. Frysinger, indicted for attempt to murder, stating that in his opinion the defendant could not be convicted of the charge upon the strength of evidence before the grand jury, and he suggested that the charge be changed to "assault with a deadly weapon with intent to do great bodily injury." On a plea of guilty to this allegation, Frysinger pled guilty and was fined $150 and costs by Judge Smith. The amount was paid.

Judge Smith overruled the motion to quash the indictment in the Brooks case.

Emma Flood pled guilty to petit larceny, and the court reserved sentence on condition that the defendant leave the state.

The libel suit of W. E. Gorton against the Moline Republican and Wm. Golds worthy was dismissed as to the latter as he merely furnished the reporter the information upon which the alleged libel was based. The article was published in the Moline Republican March 18 last and that paper of last evening describes it.

The suit brought against Mr. Gorton by his partners, Messrs. Farrell and Albrecht, was for the alleged issuing of stock to Mrs. Mary L. Gorton, for which no remuneration was alleged to have been received by the company. The case was also tied up with several different patent right side issues, and the result was that it was compromised on the 5th of March, 1890, between the parties concerned. It is for the publication of an article referring to this case, after its settlement, which reiterated the charges against him, that Gorton instituted the present suit for $5 000 damages, in which Kennedy & Co., formerly publishers of the Republican, and William Golds worthy, superintendent of the Barnard & Leas iron department, were made defendants. Mr. Gorton has since pulled out of the company and is now located at Warsaw, Ind., where he is running a mill machine shop for himself.

Tax Notice.

The taxes for 1890 are now due and payable to the township collector at the County Treasurer's office in the court house. Owners of real estate are requested to bring their last year's tax receipts in order to save time in finding the description of their property on the books. DAVID FITZGERALD, Township Collector.
